BUCKET-GANESH-NIMARJANAM:

This program was designed to impart eco-friendly thoughts among the students of Bharat Institute of Engineering and Technology and demonstrate the concept of pollution free festivals to the society at large. To encourage student's participation, the event aimed at setting an Asia Book of Records for Bucket Nimarjanam from BIET. About 60 teams with 120 students (two students per team) participated have registered to take part in the event. On 18/9/2018, 60 clay idols of Ganesha were worshipped as per Hindu tradition. Many staff members and students along with NSS student co-coordinators were present during the Ganesh pooja. The 60 idols were taken as a procession within the college premises before the idols were sunk in the NA block water tank. The entire event was recorded and mailed to Asia Book of Records for validation and certificate of achievement.
