Agenda

Strategies for prevention

The members discussed the strategies and decide the following

1. Whenever there is a leisure hour, every ARC member should make rounds in their respective department premises to inspect the ragging activities.
2. As per the schedule sent by the mail the ARC members should visit first year classes and aware the students regarding ragging, interact in a friendly manner and try to know the issues if any.
3. If any issue of ragging is found inside the campus then bring it immediately to the notice of incharge of ARC for the initiation of immediate action.
4. If any student involves in minor ragging activity (asking the personal details of freshers by force or making them to do some actions such as dancing, singing etc.) then the incident will be recorded in register and the student should give undertaking letter by himself and parent.
5. ARC members should give proper guidelines of ragging to the incharges of every route buses so that the activities can be monitored easily in the bus.
6. ARC members should collect undertaking letters/affidavit from each senior student (2nd, 3rd and 4th year) with the co-operation of concern academic incharge.
7. After completion of regular classes at 4 pm, ARC members should make rounds in ground and the bus terminals to inspect the ragging activities.
8. Daily inspection should be done in library, canteen, club activities room, grounds to prevent unwanted incidents of ragging.
9. It is decided that attending the general meetings of ARC is mandatory for every ARC member.
