Description/Conclusion:

A short term training program on problem based learning was conducted jointly by National Institute of Technical Teachers' Training & Research (NITTTR), Kolkata and Bharat Institute of Engineering and technology from 02/12/19 to 06/12/2019. Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in education is the mode of education that use information and communications technology to support, enhance, and optimise the delivery of information.This technology improves the quality of education and makes use of efficient ICT based technologies in an institution. This will open up more opportunities for the teachers and students as well and makes teaching and learning a an interesting act.

Total 108 participants were registered for this course and 65 attended the course.The course was conducted by Dr.Indrajit Saha ,Dr.Arpan kumar Mondal,Dr.Sagarika pal,and Dr.Kinsuk Giri.The content delivery was through the teleconferencing mode It was Jointly hoisted by Department of electrical and electronics and electronics and communication engineering.The coordinator of event was Dr.Balmurugan K.S.Various faculties were cleared the doubts in question answer session.
