Name of the Event: International Mother Tongue Day

Date of the Event: 21st February 2025

Student Organizer: 1st CSM-C

Faculty Mentors: Ms. Pooja Nair

International Mother Language Day is celebrated on February 21st. The day promotes linguistic diversity and multilingualism worldwide. UNESCO declared this day to recognize the importance of mother tongues. The first celebration was in 2000, following Bangladesh's language movement. The day highlights the role of languages in cultural identity. It also promotes the preservation of endangered languages. People are encouraged to learn and appreciate different languages. The day recognizes the significance of language in education. Linguistic diversity is essential for a rich cultural heritage. The celebration inspires people to preserve and promote their mother tongues.
